

Chris Austin

From: Wayne Jones [wayne@wjonesarchitecture.com]
Sent: Saturday, November 16, 2013 1:52 PM
To: rentalhelp
Subject: RE: Second Draft 2014 QAP

The requirement for exterior storage rooms for family projects would be better served if it allowed for storage inside the residential unit, with access adjacent to the entry door.

Wayne Jones, Registered Architect, LEED AP
Jones Architecture, PLLC
5011 Falls of Neuse Road, Suite J
Raleigh, NC 27609
(919) 510-8186

From: Chris Austin [<mailto:clAustin@nchfa.com>] On Behalf Of rentalhelp
Sent: Tuesday, November 12, 2013 2:59 PM
To: rentalhelp
Subject: Second Draft 2014 QAP

The second draft of the 2014 Qualified Allocation Plan and Second Draft Revisions Memo are now available on the Agency's website:
<http://www.nchfa.com/Rental/RD2014qap.aspx>

Please review the draft carefully as there are several changes from the first draft. We will continue to post comments as they are received.

If you wish to no longer receive Rental Investment emails from the Agency, please reply to this email with "Remove" as the subject.