

WHAT TO EXPECT

When You Make An Offer On A Home

ACCEPTED

The best-case scenario, if you make a fair offer on a home you might just get your offer accepted. Now you can get to work preparing for your purchase

REJECTED

Sellers may reject an offer if you submit a low-ball offer, if you demand too many contingencies or if you are not preapproved for a mortgage.

COUNTER OFFER

This is the beginning of the negotiations. If all goes well, you will end up at a good middle ground where the seller is getting a fair price and you are getting a good value.
